Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Personal Recollections of Chickamauga: A Paper Read Before the Ohio Commandery of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion of the United States Companions: Said an eminent artist, as he stood and gazed on the picture his mind, genius, and hand had wrought - a picture so wonderful in its grandeur, and in the vividness with which the subject was portrayed, I have painted for eternity. His picture was but the portrayal of his thoughts, his vision, as the subject had impressed him, and by his act he gave it life, and it spoke, and will ever speak to mankind. So have each of us painted in and upon our minds, pictures of the exciting scenes through which each passed, and of which he was a part, that transpired in our Country from April, 1861, to the close of the war in 1865. Wonderful, grand, heroic pictures they were that were painted day by day through those years. On the brain, the mind, the memory of each of us were they painted, not with the...
