Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Teri Jendusa-Nicolai married David Larsen with high hopes of a normal, happy marriage. What Teri couldn't have known was David had concealed his true personality for more than a decade. Behind his mask of humor and sociability lie a domineering husband, relentless in his pursuit of absolute control over his wife. After several attempts to escape her marriage, Teri finally left David for good, soon after the birth of their second daughter. Slowly, she began to piece back together a life for her and her girls. But David's reign of terror wasn't over yet. Left for Dead is the compelling account of one woman's indomitable will to survive and to hope when all hope was lost. This book is important because it gets our message out as to what we do to help abusers change their value systems. Maureen Manning-Rosenfeld, clinical professional counselor Teri Jendusa-Nicolai's story is a powerful example of the horrific lengths of barbarism a man can go to when he considers a woman his personal property. And it is, equally, an inspiring, riveting story of a woman's courage and clear thinking under the absolute worst of conditions, and of her tenacious hold to life. -Lundy Bancroft, author, trainer, and activist on male violence against women.
