Brand New Book  Print on Demand .so rapid have been the changes, and so markedly has the way been prepared for the predicted end of the age, since this booklet was first published in 1914, that it has been thought wise to bring it more nearly up-to-date by adding considerable new matter and making a few revisions. None of the latter have in the slightest degree modified the views originally set forth, as every passing year has but convinced the writer of the certainty of the prophetic program as revealed in the Word of God and confirmed by the signs of the times. H. A. Ironside. June, 1928 Reader, awake! Open your eyes, unstop your ears; arouse yourself while yet there remains a moment of mercy. The midnight cry rings loud and clear: "BEHOLD, THE BRIDEGROOM COMETH! GO YE OUT TO MEET HIM." But on every hand is also heard the voice of the scoffer and objector. The unfaithful servant shuts his eyes to the most manifest signs of the times and cries, "My Lord delayeth His coming." The unbelieving scorner asks ironically, "Watchman, what of the night?" and tarries not for the answer: "The morning cometh, and also the night!" The scornful cynic exclaims: "Where is the promise of His coming? for since the fathers fell asleep all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation!" But he is wilfully and culpably ignorant of the solemn fact that all things do not continue as they were, for changes of vast import and momentous consequences are taking placepolitically, religiously, and even physically, in the earth beneath and the heavens above. Even earnest Christians are not wanting who ask,...
