Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Oration by Henry a Gildersleeve, Delivered on the Battlefield of Gettysburg, September 17th, 1889, on the Occasion of the Dedication of the Monument Erected to the Memory of the Soldiers of the Dutchess County Regiment (150th New York Volunteer Infantry) War; and in addition thereto, the emancipation of a race. Famous among men will always be the founders of our Government, and, second to them in lustre, shine the bravery and fortitude of the men who secured the permanence of their noble work. We stand to-day on ground made famous by the defenders of the Union. Here was fought, more than a quarter of a century ago, the most important battle of our great Civil War. While from other fields may be gathered as appalling records of slaughter by contending armies, Gettysburg was the most decisive in its results, and in history it will be the most conspicuous. On the escutcheon of nations, written with the blood of heroes, France has its Austerlitz, England its Waterloo and the United States its Gettysburg. The 150th Regiment,...
