Excerpt: . . . it. We should have in view, in determining the question as to where we shall meet, the place where we can get the greatest number together. It you meet in August, I know members of the Bar who cant be present on that occasion. I work ten months in the year--from the first of October to the first of August. If you say to me go to the Association the last week in August or the first week in September, in either case my vacation will be utterly broken up. The Chair; The question is, shall the time be changed back to the first Tuesday and Wednesday in August Are you ready for the question You who are in favor, signify the same by saying Aye; contrary, No. The motion is lost. Now, you who are in favor of fixing the time of the...
