While still babies they became orphans, and were adopted by the Brants, a childless couple, who quickly grew very fond of them. The Brants were always saying: Be pure, honest, sober, industrious, and considerate of others, and success in life is assured. The children heard this repeated some thousands of times before they understood it; they could repeat it themselves long before they could say the Lord s Prayer; it was painted over the nursery door, and was about the first thing they learned to read. It was destined to be the unswerving rule of Edward Mills s life. Sometimes the Brants changed the wording a little, and said: Be pure, honest, sober, industrious, considerate, and you will never lack friends.
