The fear of failure is the leading phobia in people the world over. Let the robust knowledge of how to be a success with honor and dignity lift your spirit from the pit, and set your feet onto the path that will lead you to the city called success. Written with the wisdom of Africa, this book offers a step by step approach to the principles of God which when embraced, learnt and applied transforms a person from simplicity to a level of greatness in any field in life. It embraces a deeper understanding of success and how to relate it in salvation. It is, therefore, a great tool and guide through the very tenets which make kings and priests to the Living God, namely: Salvation Anointing Understanding one s destiny The love of righteousness The benefits of hard work Integrity, and Wisdom The world is applying these cardinal principles of success, albeit selectively, and succeeding against the very saints whom they are supposed to profit above all. Embrace and apply this knowledge and...
